

Claims Intern

We have the following job opportunity in our New York City office:

The Internship Program

- The program will run from June through July
- Work schedule will be 35 hours and follow a hybrid schedule, approximately 3 days in-office with the remainder remote
- Internship will be paid
- During the program, the intern group will attend a series of educational sessions to provide them with perspectives on our company and the broader industry
- Training and social activities will be structured into the program, allowing for networking opportunities with peers and colleagues

Description

The Claims Interns will provide support to our Claims team. The Interns' responsibilities and learnings will include, but not be limited to:

- Learning about the (re)insurance industry generally, and claims handling specifically
- Supporting claims clerical and technical staff with daily work, including correspondence review, claim creation, and diary notes
- Collaborating with claims managers and other interns on longer term claims data projects
- Reviewing claims for data integrity and trends
- Attending training and career development sessions with other interns
- Other ad-hoc projects
