

Want to apply your academic studies to real-world problems? Interested in helping to create solutions that have an impact? Apply to participate in our Sophomore Summit program by March 31, 2023.

Sophomore Summit 2023

Our unique program offers select college sophomores who identify with at least one historically underrepresented group. (undergraduate class of 2025) the opportunity to discover the economic consulting industry: how it works, why it is exciting, and what skills are helpful to those who choose it as a career path.

During an intensive two-day curriculum, you will gain firsthand experience. You will complete a mini-project, based on types of cases that our firm has worked on, and develop an understanding of how you can apply your academic studies to real-world problems. Along the way, you will get to know the people at our firm and learn about career opportunities at Cornerstone Research.

How do I know this program is for me?

We created this program for qualified undergraduates from a wide range of colleges and universities. We encourage you to apply if you relate to one or more of the following:

- Analytical and intellectually curious
- Ready to learn new skills
- Drawn to economics and finance
- Interested in a consulting career

When is the program?

The two-day virtual program will take place May 24–25, 2023.
